

Worksheet 1

Breton Alphabet & Writing System

Breton uses the Latin alphabet and some special characters and combinations, such as zh, ñ, c'h, ou, and ù. This worksheet helps you understand the sounds they represent and their unique spellings by matching them to their descriptions.

Part I

Match the Breton letters to their description:

Letter Bank: zh - “soft j or zh sound”

ñ - “makes the nasal sound like French (bon)”

c'h - “throaty sound like Arabic (خ)”

ou - “sounds like the oo sound in food”

ù - “also sounds like oo, but stressed”

1. ____: Nasal vowel marker used in Breton
2. ____: Representing a throaty /x/ sound (like the Arabic خ)
3. ____: A digraph pronounced /z/ or /ʒ/ depending on the dialect
4. ____: An accented vowel used in stressed syllables
5. ____: A vowel combination pronounced like /u:/

Part II

Circle the Breton words that use c'h, zh, or ñ:

1. ti
2. kañv
3. c'hwec'h
4. dour
5. brezhoneg
